

Four Steel Men Killed in Accident

Bethlehem, Pa., March 25 — (UPI)—The Bethlehem Steel Co. checked its employment records today to identify three of four men killed in a shower of white-hot sparks which gushed from a blast furnace being put out because of the soft coal shortage.

The three bodies were burned beyond recognition. The company's medical staff collaborated with Northampton County Coroner Dr. D. F. Bachman in attempts to identify the three, sprayed by the molten coke as they stood in front of the furnace.

First reports by police were that six men were killed and 13 injured. The company said a check of records showed 10 men treated at the plant dispensary and hospitals, and four dead.

Mortality from tuberculosis among U. S. physicians is less than half that of the general population.

service on coal burning railroads with a similar order to industry to slow down their plants.

Without such action, it would result in a power shortage which would result in a power shortage which would result in a power shortage.

The freight order, effective next Tuesday, reduces shipments 25 per cent. The Interstate Commerce Commission set up a priority system giving top transport rating to food, fuels, medical supplies and other essential items.

Under the Taft-Hartley law he must wait for the board's findings before seeking a court order to halt the strike.

The board will meet here Friday. Some federal officials said hearings may be held through the Easter holidays to complete the report as soon as possible.

The group will study the "causes and circumstances" of the strike, but will not make any recommendations for settlement.

An injunction is later asked and granted, the board will make another fact-finding survey in 60 days — just before Lewis' contract with the operators is due to expire on June 30.

Provisions in that contract for a health and welfare fund are back of the current dispute. Lewis is reported to be asking a $100 a month pension fund for miners over 60 with 20 years service. The pension would be paid out of the welfare fund, financed by a 10-cent-a-ton coal royalty.

Already more than $30,000,000 has been collected. But Lewis, as the union trustee, controls the fund, and Ezra Van Horn, the operators' representative, have been deadlocked since last summer over details of the pension system.

In Knoxville, J. H. Cook, a veteran Tennessee coal operator, demanded last night that Van Horn resign as trustee and "give the signatories to the contract a chance to place someone in your place who wants to see an operating plan established."

later behind closed doors. "Because of the world situation as it exists today, there is certain detailed information which we cannot safely disclose in open session," Forrestal said.

The current strength of the armed services is 1,392,000. Forrestal indicated in his testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee that war veterans will not be included in the draft plans.

He said the 19-25 year age group includes a "total of 3,000,000 male non-veterans."

Exemptions and deferments would reduce that number to 1,335,000, the secretary said. He did not immediately explain the basis for exemptions and deferments but senators have said they would exclude married men.

Forrestal said the 349,500 increase in the regular armed forces would be divided this way:

"The army, by 240,000, from 542,000 to 782,000;

"The navy by 63,000, from 397,000 to 460,000;

"The marine corps, by 11,000, from 81,000 to 92,000;

"The air force, by 35,500, from 364,000 to 400,000."

This would require an additional $3,000,000 outlay, he said, which soon will be asked of Congress.

Biggest items in this were listed as: $775,000 for aircraft procurement, research and development for the air force and naval aviation.

About $760,000,000 for military personnel costs.

He said the costs of UMT already are covered in the budget and include an appropriation of $500,000,000.

letting Russia swallow all of Europe by withholding aid. They just don't like foreigners. They think that a nation that spent $374,000,000,000 to defeat Nazi Germany might be ruined by spending $5,000,000,000 in an effort to beat communism.

The no-hurry congressmen can't seem to realize that it isn't Secretary Marshall or Senator Vandenberg or President Truman who is rushing them into this thing. The man who is hurrying them is Josef Stalin.

House Approves Compromise on Rent Control

Washington, March 25 — (AP)—A compromise one-year continuation of rent controls was voted by the House today. The Senate is expected to follow suit and send the legislation to President Truman by midnight.

Without the legislation the present controls, affecting about 13,000,000 dwelling places and 50,000,000 persons, would end a week from today.

The compromise written by a Senate-House Conference Committee after the two chambers had passed differing bills, modifies the "local option" feature of the House version by giving a special federal court the last word on rent boosts whenever local boards and federal officials disagree.

As passed by the House, prior to drafting of the compromise late yesterday, the bill would have given the local boards — nominated by the governors of the various states — absolute authority to raise rents or decontrol areas completely.

The compromise revises the House bill provision which would have stripped federal officials of final authority in rent decisions.

Live Bomb Proves Headache for L. R. Police Department
Little Rock, March 25 (UP)—Detective Chief C. O. Fink is a clam and patient man, even on the brink of eternity.

But yesterday he grew impatient and took a chance on going over the brink.

It started when a Little Rock junk dealer called the police station.

Somewhere, somewhere, the junk man explained, during the collection of scrap metal he had picked up a 20-pound aerial bomb and it looked real.

It was a real bomb alright, but the police couldn't determine whether or not it was a "live" one.

So they called in army intelligence.

The army men remarked that the bomb still had the detonator in it and they retired to think the situation over.

While the bomb sat in the police station, making a great many persons uncomfortable.

Finally Chief Fink could stand it no more.

He asked Capt. G. F. Knapp to give him a hand and the two men walked down the street and onto the heavily traveled Broadway bridge.

They waited for a lull in the traffic and then flung the bomb into the Arkansas river less than two stories below.

They held their breaths. There was a big splash and a spray of water shot up toward the men on the bridge. But there was no explosion.

Later Chief Fink recalled that the bomb "like throwing a rock in the water."

Carnival Has Trouble—Fat Lady Losing Weight
Jacksonville, Fla., March 24 (UP)—Patty, the world's largest lady, lost a pound or two today and 200 other carnival people were worried.

With 45 freight cars sidetracked with equipment for 14 shows, they were waiting for a "go" signal from the Office of Defense Transportation.

The James E. Strate's Shows, slated to leave winter quarters here tomorrow, was the first big train show affected by an ODT ban on long train movements during the coal strike.

Atlantic Coast Line officials here said they have a contract to haul the train but have been unable to get an ODT permit.

Strate said that in addition to the 200 performers and workmen who have assembled here to start spring rounds, some 500 persons are waiting in Washington, D. C., for final assembly at an initial engagement there April 1.

"It will take six days to move and get up the show there," Strate said. "But the woe of it is the people camping here. That's a lot of people to have around with nothing to do."

DOROTHY DIX Injustice to Youth

Rearing children is one of the noblest motives. They are trying to protect them. They are attempting to keep them unspotted from the world. So they deny them every vestige of personal liberty and all the pleasures that belong to youth.

Enslaved Daughters
Especially do these strict parents enslave their daughters in their effort to protect them from the wolves. Every day my mail is heavy with the letters from desperate girls protesting against the strictures of their fathers and mothers. They have never been allowed to have a date, or a Boy Friend, or to go to any place of amusement, not even the movies, unless accompanied by some member of the family who is delegated to spy upon them and report all suspicions to Mother and Father.

If they go to a party, Mother holds them by the hands. If a youth comes to see them, Papa reads the paper where he can eavesdrop on every word that is said. And if a lad lingers beyond Dad's bedtime, he is politely shown the front door. And the result is that the boys never date Mary or Sally or Susie but once. Or else she becomes a little flirt who deceives her parents who has secret dates with pickups and goes God knows where, with God knows whom.

Among my acquaintances are four sisters who are up to their knees in their thirties, who tell me that they never had a beau; they have never stepped out with a boy because their parents were so strict with them that they kept them isolated from masculine society that it made them timid and awkward and so dumb they couldn't carry on a conversation with a man. This not only predestined them to old maidhood, but it lessened their ability to succeed in business because they could not deal with men on their own ground. They were as scared of every man as if he were about to kidnap them.

Naturally it is every mother's duty to protect her daughters, but the best does that when she makes them wise to the pitfalls that are in every girl's pathway, not by keeping them under lock and key. The big bad wolf never gets the Little Red Riding Hood, who has learned the technique of dealing with the lady-killer of her mother's age and knows how to handle him.

Wallace Backer Won't Answer

Washington, March 24 — (P) — A supporter of Henry A. Wallace for president today refused direct answers to senators' questions as to whether he is a present or former member of the Young Communist League.

The witness, Seymour Linfield of New York City, later was allowed to read his prepared statement opposing both a draft and universal military training.

He appeared before the Senate Armed Services Committee as "Wallace for President" committee representative, the Progressive Citizens of America.

Chairman Gurney (R-S.D.) and Senators Baldwin (R-Conn.) and Saltonstall (R-Mass.) tried for more than a half hour to obtain a "yes or no" answer from Linfield to this question:

"Were you or are you a member of the Young Communist League?"

Instead of answering directly, Linfield quoted what he said was a pledge by Wallace, third party candidate for president.

This statement said Wallace would not accept support of any group seeking to restrict civil liberties.

Linfield, black-haired and scowling, identified himself as a World War II veteran with three and one half years service as a paratrooper. He said he is associate general counsel of the CIO-United Electrical Workers.

He referred to a supreme court decision which he said gives in-

UN Is Going Through Some Black Days But Don't Count Organization Out Yet

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER
(For Dewitt MacKenzie)

Lake Success, March 24 — (P) — Don't count the United Nations out yet.

That is the opinion expressed by United Nations leaders and delegates two years after the Security Council held its first meeting in America. The actual anniversary is tomorrow.

The U. N. now is going through perhaps its blackest days, but no responsible leader here, from Secretary-General Trygve Lie on down, and no responsible delegate shows any sign of throwing up his hands and quitting.

The overriding concern is the split between the Slav countries, led by Russia, and the Western powers—chiefly the United States, Britain and France. None of the big powers, especially Russia, is showing any letup in interest.

In the 1947 general assembly several delegates complained that the world apparently expected the U. N. to establish peace.

They pointed out that the U. N. was not built to make the peace after World War II. The U. N., they said, is intended to preserve peace once the big powers have agreed upon it.

Some delegates consider that the top achievement of the security council during its two years in America came in the Indonesian case.

The council and its good offices committee succeeded in stopping serious fighting in Indonesia.

There still is no agreement on control of atomic energy, in the Balkans case, in Korea, in the Egyptian complaint against Britain, and other top items on the security council's list of headaches.

The greatest strain now comes from the Palestine partition controversy and the Russian-Western battle over Czechoslovakia. These issues still are far from being settled.

Most of the U. N. accomplishments have been in the economic field.

The economic and social council has approved three economic commissions—one for Europe, another for the Far East, and a third for Latin America.

An economic commission for the Middle East is in the mill.

The largest trade conference in history, meeting at Havana under U. N. auspices, is setting up a new U. N. agency for bettering world trade.

The U. N. took a hand in the cholera epidemic in Egypt last October through the world health organization, sending a supply of vaccine to halt the disease.

A world conference on freedom of information, intended to study obstacles to the free flow of information, has just opened in Geneva.

Leaders here feel that a lot of hard and patient work has gone into putting the U. N. where it is now.

Political difficulties have grabbed the spotlight but the delegates say that much honest-to-goodness work for the benefit of humanity has been done in quiet committee rooms.

But these leaders feel that "infinite patience" is required now.

Some even say that it will be a miracle if the ultimate goal of the U. N. is achieved "in my lifetime, or yours."

Individuals the right to protection on their religious and political views.

"That's far afield from my question," Gurney told him after Linfield gave lengthy but indirect replies.

Slavs Back Out of Offer to Italy

Rome, March 24 — (P) — Yugoslavia backed out today from an offer to trade Trieste to the Italian city of Gorizia.

The Yugoslav foreign ministry voiced regret over the "apparent assumption abroad" that Yugoslavia would insist on obtaining Gorizia in exchange for Trieste.

At the same time, a ministry spokesman hinted that Yugoslavia might consider some other swap for the great Adriatic port now in free territory partially occupied by Yugoslavia.

An Italian spokesman said yesterday Italy would reject any Yugoslav renewal of her offer to barter her claims to Trieste for Gorizia.

The Yugoslav spokesman said last night foreign minister Stanoje Simic did not intend to advance any specific proposal when he told newsmen Monday that Yugoslavia is ready to seek a compromise on Trieste through mutual efforts.

The spokesman said the fact that Simic mentioned the talks of 1946 and declared Yugoslavia is prepared again to go so far in those talks was misunderstood.

The spokesman contended Simic "said in the spirit" of those talks but did not mean to imply the terms necessarily would be the same, or that Yugoslavia has any specific proposal in mind at present.

In Milan, police used tear gas last night as Communists and government sympathizers clashed for the third straight day.

Roars of "Viva La Guerra (War)" were reported from one mass demonstration in the Piazza Piccola.

A number of persons were hurt, most of them slightly.

Thousands of milling demonstrators filled Milan's Piazza Del Duomo (Cathedral Square). Police headquarters nearby presented a warlike scene with barbed wire barricades blocking street approaches.

Steel helmeted police with field equipment were stationed strategically. Jeeps and trucks with armed police patrolled the area.

It was reliably reported in Rome that the United States is "favorably disposed" toward accepting the return to Italy of her pre-Fascist colonies in Africa.

An official announcement may be expected shortly, it was added.

France and Russia already have agreed to the idea. Britain's position is not yet known.

The common cold is one of the most highly infectious of all communicable diseases.

Springfield, Mo., March 25—(AP)—Six teams—three of them from California—remained in the running today for the National Junior College Basketball Tournament championship.

In quarter-final games in the championship bracket today—Glendale, Calif., meets Tyler, Tex., and Marin of Menlo Park, Calif., plays Dodge City, Kan.

The Compton, Calif., Tartans, defeated the team from the University of Oklahoma, and advanced to the semi-finals yesterday.

In first round games yesterday Dodge City beat Morton College of Cicero, Ill., 70-45, and Marin ousted Moberly, Mo., 59-50. Magnolia A. & M., of Magnolia, defeated Bluefield, W. Va., 61-42, in a consolation round game.

Magnolia Wins in Junior College Meet

By The Associated Press
Magnolia A. & M. college's 34-33 victory over Ouachita last night was the most dramatic of the season. The game was a thriller from start to finish.

Coach Elmer Smith of Magnolia says one which came in the last two minutes of play in that game was the most thrilling play he ever saw. It saved the game for his Muleriders.

The score was 24-33 with less than two minutes left. But Ouachita had a chance to win. The Tigers had the ball on Magnolia's two-yard line, second down.

Ouachita's quarterback, Carl, came out with a "flip out" or lateral pass from the T formation.

But the Tigers' timing failed. Ouachita's Veldon McKnight, instead of going the ball to his man in motion, flipped it into the arms of Magnolia's left end, Charles McClendon. The Mulerider flanker tucked the pigskin away and set sail to midfield, where Magnolia retained possession until the final gun.

Recalling the play, Smith said it probably did more to break Ouachita's back for the season "and help us on through a good year more than any play I have ever witnessed."

It's being whispered around that Herman Hickman probably would have coached Yale football coaching job if he had listened to friends at West Point, but he went into seclusion to avoid being influenced. And friends say that Sid Villman, Herman's successor, was becoming discouraged. Sid is recognized as one of the smartest small college coaches, but he wasn't getting any tumbles from the big colleges. After looking over Philie Phillips the other day, the Yankees had more praise for Pitcher Colin Roberts, fresh out of Michigan State College, than for the ballyhooed Curt Simmons.

National Hockey League statistics have figured out that the average number of playoff games required to settle the Stanley Cup during the past five years has been 16.

Pretty Precedent
Another sports "first" will be marked up in Des Moines, Ia., Saturday when the state girls' champion basketball teams of Texas and Iowa clash in an inter-state play-off. Mesquite High of Dallas county, Tex., and Kanawha High of Iowa will present their states and folks out that way believe it's the first such inter-state affair on record. More than 7,000 tickets had been sold by last week, proving there's a lot of interest.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

New York, March 25—(AP)—Latest reports from the South seem to confirm the general impression that major league baseball clubs will return to their old training programs next year and forget about the March 1 starting date.

Already managers are squawking that they've had to play too many exhibitions and haven't had time for plain practice. . . But, strangely, the pitchers on most clubs still seem to be "ahead" of the hitters, although they didn't get the benefit of a week's head start this year. . . Lincoln High school of San Jose, Calif., tossed six pitchers into a ball game against Campbell High recently and none of them gave a hit.

Enforcer Declared Ready for Arkansas Derby

Hot Springs, March 25—(AP)—The favorite, Mrs. Emil Denomark's Enforcer, has been declared ready for Saturday's $10,000 Arkansas Derby.

The opinion was expressed by Trainer Robert McGarvey after Enforcer ran a mile in 1:40.2 with ease in his final pre-derby workout at Oaklawn yesterday.

The Derby, a mile and a furlong test, will have a field of no more than 11. Two nominees, P. A. Rothfuss' Cain A'Foot and Dave Ferguson's All Or Nothing, were withdrawn yesterday.

Owners of two other nominees said their horses might not run unless the track is muddy. The horses are W. H. Bishop's Baciagallo and Henry Forrest's Cotton Joe.

Hot Springs, March 25—(AP)—Every time a class selling placers at Oaklawn Park were entered in the six-furlong feature of the track's program today.

Top weight of 112 pounds was assigned to Gregory and Boyen's Radio Joe. But the most likely favorite was J. C. Ellis' Quintero, which will carry 109 pounds.

Also entered were Sun Symbol, Miss Clara, Here's Me, Mainline and Run Lady, Sun Symbol was carried only 90 pounds.

D. C. Wilhelm's Bubbling Easy won the Mountain Valley allowance yesterday, going six furlongs in 1:11.1 and paying $17.50 straight. The favorite, Bullish, was second. Leaping Moose finished third.

West and East Caregivers Promise Action Aplenty

New York, March 25—(AP)—A spectacular, high scoring exhibition is expected tonight when East meets the West in the third annual Herald Tribune fresh air fund all-star basketball game.

Sponsors are looking forward to a capacity crowd of around 18,000 in Madison Square Garden.

A large gathering of pro scouts and coaches will be on hand to give the talented casts a final once-over. Some of the best ball-handlers and shots in the country will take part.

Both squads are big and husky and for once the East will have an edge in both height and weight.

The Easterners, coached this year by Navy's Ben Carnevale, average six feet, three inches and 194 pounds. The Westerners, piloted by Notre Dame's Ed (Boss) Krause, average 6-2 and 182.

A. L. (Amby) Rennett, of the Oklahoma Aggies, was chosen by the Western caregivers to captain their team and Leland Byrd of West Virginia was picked to lead the Easterners.

That doesn't mean that either will start. Both coaches are jubilant over the wealth of material at their command but are stumped over whom they will select to start. They decided to name their opening five at game time (about 9:45 p.m. EST).

Each section has one victory to its credit. In the first game in 1946, Koe Lapchick's Easterners won over Harold Olson's Westerners, 60-58. In the Westerners' last year equalled the count with a year with a 60-58 triumph over the Nat Holman-coached Easterners.

Schmeling's Comeback Hopes Suffer

Washington, March 25—(UPI)—Max Schmeling's hopes of making a boxing comeback in the United States were several stiff rounds from a decision today.

Ahead of the 42-year-old former heavyweight champion were the State Department, the House Un-American Activities committee, and the Justice Department's immigration service.

An appeal to allow Schmeling to enter the United States in May to begin a series of fights was made Monday to Secretary of State George C. Marshall by Fred Kirsch, Washington promoter.

No action has been taken by the State Department on the request, pending Schmeling's application for a visitor's visa in Germany.

Rep. John McDowell, R., Pa., a member of the House Un-American Activities committee, has asked the State Department's visa section for an explanation of why Schmeling's plans to come to the United States. McDowell said he thinks it is "a rather shoddy scheme to bring an over-age fighter who certainly has been useful to the Nazis into this country to exploit sports followers."

Watson E. Miller, chief of the Immigration Service, said he hadn't considered whether his agency would approve Schmeling's plans to visit.

Kirsch, however, was confident the former German paratrooper would be on hand to start fighting in this country in May. He said Schmeling now is instructing soldiers in the first U. S. Infantry Division at Nurnburg in boxing.

Wardens at War Against Game Poachers

By MORT STERN
Mountain Home, March 23—(UPI)—A small army of game wardens and state police was active in the Sylamore ranger district in northern Arkansas today as officials attempted to bring an early halt to an undeclared war between wardens and deer poachers of the area.

E. A. McAmis, executive secretary of the state Game and Fish Commission, said 20 wardens and four policemen were moved into the Ozark National Park after natives of the hill country posted warnings in an effort to halt the commission's deertrapping program.

He explained that the natives have been aroused by the plan under which deer from the over-crowded Sylamore hills are being transferred to the mountains of Arkansas. And he added, "natives have vowed to kill one deer illegal for every deer that is trapped."

The decision to move additional manpower into the wild Ozark section was made after four deer trappers, unsigned notices posted conspicuously in the park. They said "ston trapping or take what fellows. This means business."

McAmis immediately declared "we'll make every effort to completely wipe out the practice of killing deer illegal."

First positive move was the arrest and conviction of two Marshall, Ark., men on a charge of killing the horned animals illegal. The men, N. M. and F. M. Henry, pleaded guilty in justice of the peace court and were fined $200 today. A third man, Jack Centrell of Big Flat, will be tried Saturday.

Mangrum Favorite in Charlotte Open Meet

Charlotte, N. C., March 25—(AP)—The spot reserved for the favorite of the $10,000 Charlotte Open golf tournament was marked off today and planted firmly on it was Lloyd Mangrum, the lanky Chicagoan.

The mustached Mangrum clinched that distinction when he won the Greensboro Open Sunday and brought his year's earnings to just under $11,000—tops among the pros.

He has won three of the 11 tournaments with a $10,000 prize tag on the winter swing that ends in Augusta, Va., early next month. The other eight events have gone to as many players.

Mangrum, who came out of the battlefields of Europe to win the 1946 National Open, didn't lessen his chances to be cont as favorite in today's 72-hole event at the Myers Park course by his pre-tournament slump.

He finished a 60 in a warmup two days ago to tie the competitive course record he set during the 1946 tournament. Par for the 6,400-yard strip is 72.

Gary Middlecoff, of the Memphis, Tenn., club, was the tournament last year, shooting a 64 in the final round, and was out of the field on the same day hangs a White House party which Old Tom Tom inserted "To James M. Pendergast—friend, comrade, and adviser." He bade him to the White House as his family guest.

After Old Tom's release from prison he was forbidden by the terms of his parole to take active part in politics. The evasion was simple. He acted through Jim and Truman transferred his allegiance to the dictator's heir.

"Jim is not a Johnny-come-lately in the president's inner circle," Milligan writes. "It was Jim Pendergast who first brought Truman to the attention of Uncle Tom, back in 1922 when Truman was unknown."

Mr. Milligan's final abandonment of hope that decency might exist in Truman was restrained until in 1943 Truman ordered Jim Pendergast to purge Roger Slaghter, a Democratic congressman from Kansas City.

On primary day, Truman flew to Kansas City to help in the purge and on that day, in the old-fashioned Pendergast way, the gang made the primary election for Truman's candidate, Enos Axtell. Truman was the guest of honor, as it were, at an old gang-rager.

Scandal ensued, but the corruption had now spread notoriously to the Department of Justice in Washington. The federal investigation and prosecutions stopped dead. However, a county grand jury found indictments and the evidence, consisting mostly of ballots and records, was taken to Kansas City for safekeeping. On the night of May 17, 1947, as Truman slept in Kansas City, the vault of the courthouse was blown and the evidence was stolen. And still the Department of Justice stalled and faltered.

Milligan had convicted 259 of Truman's and the Pendergasts' henchmen of vote frauds in the 1936 election. Of all the 278 who were indicted for almost unbelievable rascality in the polling, 19 were dismissed, but all who went to trial were convicted.

Yet, Truman, then serving Pendergast in the Senate, rose up in the chamber in 1939, in the face of Milligan's conduct of these trials, to oppose his reappointment. It was an outrageous attempt to influence the verdicts. President Roosevelt, for some reason, reappointed Milligan nevertheless, but in 1945, when he had become vice

Army Paper Succumbs

Philadelphia, March 25—(AP)—Abian A. (Wally) Wallgren, 56, cartoonist for "Stars and Stripes" during the first world war, died yesterday following a long illness. Wallgren was credited by Gen. John J. Pershing with keeping up the morale of thousands of doughboys with his travesties of officers and his humorous illustrations picturing the difficulties and problems of soldiers.

Following the war, he continued his activities on the American staff of Stars and Stripes, then joined the American Legion monthly. He continued with that magazine up to the time of his recent illness.

Among Wallgren's creations were "Zabed the Sailor," "Hoosier Herman," and "The Saluting Demon."

Cards Reported Weak in Catcher Department

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 25—(AP)—In searching for a sore spot on the St. Louis Cardinals who don't hear an "ouch" until you get to the catcher's position. The pair there exclaiming to Manager Eddie Dyer.

"I'm downright envious of teams with catchers such as Phil Masi, Bruce Edwards and Walker Cooper," the drawing Texan moans. "I didn't want to let Cooper go, make no mistake about that. But the circumstances were such it just had to be."

It's an odd situation that presents a team with perhaps the deepest strength in pitching in the National League, but hasn't a good catcher to catch what the chuckers throw.

As Dyer explains it, Joe Garagiola can't throw. Del Rice is good against left-handed pitching only. And Del Wilber, a kind of right hander and drops the ball often.

That sounds a little complicated, but Dyer means that he has no one man he can stick in there any day against any kind of pitching and forget him. He has to juggle around, trying to get the best man in there on a particular day against the type of opposition to be faced.

If it isn't a running team, he can use Garagiola. If it's a left-handed pitcher, he can use Rice. If he feels he can take a chance on having third strikes muffed, he can use Wilber.

The rare flower of shortstop, is found only in the mountains of North Carolina and in Japan.

Unused Suggestion

When the Washington monument had stood unfinished for many years, suggestions were made that it be left at the height of 150 feet, and that a fire be kept burning atop the shaft throughout the centuries to come.

"Here's a letter from a farmer about an experience he had with natural soda on his hay. I hope what he has to say may help you get more cuttings, too."

Uncle Natchel

"I have been fertilizing before planting my hay crops, and this gave me two cuttings. Last year I top dressed with Chilean Nitrate of Soda on two acres after the first cutting. This was ready for the second cutting ten days before the rest of the field. It also produced a third before frost. This year I top dressed all of it with Chilean Soda after the first cutting and will get three cuttings instead of two."

Highway Director J. C. Baker said that beginning April 1, allotments to the 10 districts would be increased $121,000 monthly.

The money will be transferred from the highway construction fund to speed repairs to weather-damaged highways, Baker said. He added it would permit purchase of materials and working repair crews 10 hours daily instead of the customary eight.

Magnolia, March 25. — (P) — The theatre was destroyed by a heavy fire today. The damage was estimated in excess of $80,000. The blaze started when sparks from a welding torch ignited the green. The welders were installing a new air conditioning unit. The fire took about an hour to control, more than an hour and the El Dorado fire department sent a truck to assist the Magnolia department in an oil field freighting crew. The fire chief, manager of the Magnolia Amusement Co., owner of the theatre, said damage to the installations alone was $50,000. The building's roof collapsed. The building owners were not insured. The fire was valuable for an estimate of their loss.
